Many other Virginia Lipscombs provided supplies, during the Revolutionary War, (including Thomas Lipscomb, p. 237, of Spotsylvania, who had been mistakenly accepted by DAR in the place of Ensign Thomas Lipscomb). These Public Service records can be checked at VSA, and at the DAR Library, and most of them are indicated in the pages of the individuals, herewith.

The military, Pension and some Bounty Land records indicated above can be found at the National Archives, Washington, D.C.

VIRGINIA LIPSCOMBS who turned in their paper money

The National Genealogical Society Quarterly, Vol. 46 #4, p. 163-190 (Dec. 1958) gives a long list of Virginians who turned in their paper money to the Virginia Continental Loan Office, 1779-80. The Lipscombs who complied are listed on p. 190, and are, as follows, --

LIPSCOMB,	Ambrose,	King William Co.	# 410	(Mar. 1779)	$ 50

By resolution of the Continental Congress, it was determined to take out of circulation the whole emissions of May 21, 1777 and Apr. 11, 1778, because counterfeits of these emissions had been made and were in circulation, thus injuring the credit of the paper currency. All persons were urged to turn in such paper currency in their possession. (Probably DAR acceptance)

Four record sources provide information on these services, -

- | | |
|--------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. County Court Booklets | 3. County Lists |
| 2. Certificates | 4. County Commission Books |

There are sometimes more than one service listed for one person, but occasionally a service will not be listed in each of the four sources. These four source records are at the Virginia State Archives, Richmond, VA 23219. Index cards showing what to call for are on microfilm at the DAR Library Microfilm Room, Washington D.C., National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, 1776 D. Street, N.W., 20006 (and, no doubt at VSA also). This is termed, by DAR, "Patriotic Service" on Public Service Claims.

KING WILLIAM COUNTY VOLUNTEERS - War of 1812

From Tyler's Quarterly Magazine, Vol. 21 (1939-40) p. 125-6, we have a list furnished by (Mrs. W.M.) Lenora Higginbotham Sweeny, of part of the men of King William County, Va. past age for military service, who volunteered for military service, in case of need, in anticipation of the War of 1812. They even offered to furnish their own arms and ammunition.

The Lipscombs in this list are, —

	Age	Number on the list
John Lipscomb,	58	5	of 45 names
Thomas Lipscomb,	55	9
Mourning Lipscomb,	53	13
Madison Lipscomb,	47	19
John Lipscomb, L. of N.	59	31	(it was surely S.(son) of Nunn)
Bernard Lipscomb	53	34
Daniel Lipscomb	53	35
Benoni Lipscomb	54	45

No record has been found to show that these men did serve, however. But, it was a patriotic gesture.

KING WILLIAM COUNTY LAND TAXES for 1782

Virginia counties began in 1782 with both Land and Personal Property taxing of the inhabitants. The annual lists of most counties of Virginia have been collected, and are on microfilm at the Archives in Richmond.

They provide immeasurable clues for assembling information on families. This is especially true when the head of the family dies, and his tax listing is marked "Est." giving us an approximate year of his death. Sometimes, his listing continues as "Est.", or, perhaps it will be listed in subsequent years in the name of his widow, or his son, thus giving further clues on the names in the family. Oftentimes brothers or members of the same family paid their taxes on the same day, - or, had equivalent acreages, due to equal division of inherited land. There are any number of indications that can have a meaning.

And, by around 1814-6, the clerks started indicating on tax lists for Land, the distance it was from the Court House, and in what direction, - giving an excellent clue to its location. Also, there are frequent notations, after around 1816, showing how any additional land might be accounted for-- or, even a disposal of land, and to whom. In order to make the best use of this source, the compiler secured copies of all Land tax records for Lipscomb, in King William County, up through the year 1829, and has tabulated the significant clues. It has helped greatly toward putting families together.

The 1782 King William County Land Tax pages are not clear enough for good reproduction, so you will find, here, a transcript of the Lipscomb entries for that year, --

On the opposite page is a reproduction of the pages of "L" names from the Personal Property Tax list of King William County for 1782. The insert short page is from the second book which includes entries from the western portion of the county, where Yancy and his brother, Anderson, are shown.

This list does show a few Lipscombs who are not on the Land Tax list, -- probably not yet land owners.

It is interesting to see that the majority of names beginning with "L" were Lipscombs, which might indicate that the family had increased in King William County quite steadily within that first one hundred years in Virginia. Especially so, since some branches had already left the county for other areas.

On this list, the first column is for White titheables

During the early tax years, in most Virginia counties, additional pages were used to indicate land transferrals during the year, - to be sure of proper taxation on lands for the following year. These were called "Alterations", and showed usually the Proprietor's name, the amount of land, the assessed price per acre, the total value of the land, the Tax assessment, and the name of the former owner, sometimes showing whether the land was conveyed - by deed or by inheritance. All very valuable information. In later years, after 1816, such notes were frequently made in tax page margins.
