6. Thomas Lipscomb I b. abt. 1705 d. 12/11/1700 m. Sarah McGehee (MacGehee)
Sarah's father was Thomas McGehee. Thomas owned land in several Virginia counties. Thomas MackGehee owned land in New Kent Co, as early as 1689, when it is recorded in St. Peter's Vestry, p. 20, that he 'marked the bounds of his land'." Several years later, on 28 October 1702, Thomas petitioned for 256 acres in Pamunkey Neck on the west side of Nicatywance Swamp, in King William Co. This patent was granted for transporting six persons into the Colony. However, this land grant was not confirmed until 10 November 1713, according to English Duplicates of lost Virginia Records. Less than a year after his above petition, Thomas bought 110 acres from Wiliam Glover, recorded 20 September 1703, King William County. This land was farther up the Nicatywance Swamp, which is now called Harrison Creek. These acres had been granted to James Johnson on 1 April 1702, then sold to William Glover. Glover, in turn sold them to Thomas MackGehee. The Quit Rent Rolls of 1704 for King William County list "Thomas MackGehee 250 acres." Thomas resided abt 1645 Northumberland in King William Co. VA BIRTH: ABT 1658, York Co. VA or Loch Katrine, Scotland DEATH: 27 Jul 1727, St. John's Parish, King William Co. Virginia.

  - 5. Ambrose Lipscomb (II) b. abt. 1680 d. m. to Mary Gissedge. (See Royal Families,also) Mary's father was Richard Gissedge. Notes: Richard Gissedge's land was in Pamunkey Neck, on the east side of Cohoke Swamp, extending downward from the tract which had been patented by Ambrose Lipscomb, and which lay below the courthouse. He gained title to 2000 acres, within the Indian Ring, in June 1699, by the action of a committee appointed to settle the claims to land in Pamunkey Neck already developed [Malcolm Hart Harris, MD, OLD NEW KENT COUNTY; SOME ACCOUNT OF THE PLANTERS ETC., IN KING WILLIAM COUNTY, ST. JOHN'S PARISH, Vol. II, privately printed, West Point, VA, 1977, 671]. He previously had received a patent to 337 acres in St. Stephen's Parish of New Kent County, for the transportation of seven persons into the colony [SHELTON FAMILY GENEALOGICAL NOTES, Manuscript Collection #30057, LVA]. The will of Richard Gissedge, written 3 Mar 1702/3 and entered for probate on 20 May of the same year, no longer exists. Richard Gissedge divided his real property into four parts, but does not specify to whom it was to be left. He is more specific concerning Mr. Gissedge's personal property which was divided into three parts; one-third to his widow, Sarah, one-third to his daughter, Mary Lipscomb, wife of Ambrose Lipscomb; and one-third to his daughter, Christian Gissedge [who married a Poindexter, and one of their descendants was the Hon. George Poindexter, first delegate to Congress from the Territory of Mississippi, later a governor of the state and a U.S. Senator]. Bequests were made to his friends William Noyes, Daniel Miles, and Robert Sercey.
