History of

NATHAN LAFAYETTE LIPSCOMB and LAURA LIEURANEY CROW LIPSCOMB

Nathan Lafayette Lipscomb was descended from Joel Lipscomb who is believed to have arrived in Virginia from England in 1690, through Joel's son, Thomas, (born in Virginia in 1700), his son, William, (born in Virginia, March 28, 1731; moved to South Carolina in the Gaffney-Thickety Creek area in 1784); his son, John, (born in Virginia, October 31, 1760; moved to South Carolina with his father); his son, Edward, (born in South Carolina, July 31, 1795); and his son, Elias, (born in South Carolina, August 12, 1817). Elias married Artemisa Golightly in South Carolina, February 14, 1840. They had eight children. Nathan Lafayette Lipscomb, the seventh child and fifth son, was born April 24, 1855. Two older brothers, William E. and John C. Lipscomb, died in the Civil War. Another brother, Joseph F. "Joe" Lipscomb, served in the Confederate Army. Nathan was barely 10 years old when the War ended.

Following the Civil War, Elias moved his family to Bartow County, Georgia, and settled near Cassville. His oldest living son, Joe, married Sallie Lowe (they had no children) and lived in Bartow County the remainder of his life. The next oldest living son, James L. "Jimmy" Lipscomb, married and lived in Bartow County for some years before moving to Texas. Nathan established the main branch of the Lipscomb family in Bartow County.

Nathan's wife-to-be, Laura Lieuraney Crow, was born in Bartow County, February 23, 1856. Her father, William Crow, had moved to the County from South Carolina, between 1840 and 1850. He married Susan McEver (born February 25, 1826), the daughter of Brice M. and Lieuraney Boroughs McEver (married March 7, 1799). William Crow settled near some big springs in the central part of the County north of Cassville and west of White, Georgia. The community became known as Crow Springs. During the Civil War, William was taken prisoner by Union troops and is presumed to have died in a prisoner of war camp near Chattanooga, Tennessee. Laura was about eight years old when her father died. Her mother, Susan, held onto the farm with the help of William's sons by an earlier marriage. Her younger brother, Lint Crow, born in 1862, took over the farming as a young teenager and made a crop there every year until he died at the age of 86.

Susan McEver's family had settled near another large spring about two miles north of White, Georgia on what is now Richards Road. Her two unmarried sisters, Margaret and Isabel ("Ibby") McEver, eventually owned the McEver Farm. They asked Nathan to take over their farm. Nathan and Laura moved there early in their marriage and lived there the rest of their lives. They inherited the farm when Aunt "Ibby" died in 1904.

Meanwhile, eleven children were born to Nathan and Laura Lipscomb. Ten reached adulthood at what had become the Lipscomb homeplace. They are listed below with names of their spouses in parenthesis:

- (1) William Christopher "Kit" Lipscomb (Georgie/Georgia Cleo Moore)
- (2) Ethel Viola Lipscomb (William Alvin "Will" Burnette)
- (3) Minnie Florence Lipscomb (Milton Harrison "Booker" Denman)
- (4) Joseph Linton "Lint" Lipscomb (Mary Nida Collins)
- (5) Oscar Clifford "O. C." Lipscomb (Ella Malinda Cornelison) - (Esther T. "Essie" Brown)
- (6) James Arthur "Jim" Lipscomb (Mary Lillian "Lily" Holden)
- (7) Frances Mabel "Fannie" Lipscomb (Fred Lamar Bishop)
- (8) Thomas Jefferson Lipscomb (died at age of three)
- (9) Robert Lafayette "Rob" Lipscomb (Katie Dale Gaines)
- (10) Margaret Isabel "Maggie" Lipscomb (Charles Cleveland "Cleve" Holden)
- (11) Herschel Henry Lipscomb (Ethel Oletha Donald).

Jim Lipscomb's wife, Lily Holden, and Cleve Holden, who married Maggie Lipscomb, were sister and brother.

Most of the spouses were natives of Bartow County, Georgia, and most of the couples remained in or eventually returned to the County. Most of the men were farmers and most of the women married farmers. Herschel was a foreman at the General Motors plant in Detroit, Michigan before taking early retirement to return to the Lipscomb homeplace, which he had bought. Cleve Holden was a skilled craftsman and operated a shoe repair shop at Etowah, Tennessee. The men and women were respected in their communities. Most of the farmers owned some, if not all, the land they farmed. Oscar was one of the first farmers in Bartow County (along with Harold Tribble), to breed purebred Jersey cattle. Rob, of all the brothers, developed the largest farming operation (cotton and beef cattle) and was known as one of the best farmers of the county. The 48 members of the next generation represented a great diversity in occupations, with few depending entirely on farming for a livelihood, although a number of them owned and pursued some agricultural interests.

Two of Nathan and Laura's sons, Rob and Herschel, and a grandson-in-law, Tom Ramey, Jr., served in the Army during World War I. At least twenty-five of their grandchildren served in the military during world War II. Other descendants have served our country during various conflicts including the Korean, Viet Nam and the Persian Gulf Wars.

Nathan Lipscomb passed away November 27, 1918, at the age of 63. Laura Crow Lipscomb lived until June 1, 1941, to the age of 85. Nathan and Laura's children who reached adulthood lived to ages ranging from 64 (Joseph Linton "Lint" Lipscomb) to 95 years (Ethel Viola Lipscomb Burnette). All of the Lipscomb children and their spouses have passed away, the latest being Nida Collins Lipscomb, wife of Lint Lipscomb, who died March 2, 1996 - just a few months shy of her 105th birthday. Of Nathan and Laura's 49 grandchildren, 23 are still living.

Nathan and Laura were members of Wofford's Cross Roads Baptist Church at White, Georgia, and are buried in the cemetery there. Most of their children joined this church, providing important leadership and support. Many of them and their descendants are also buried at this cemetery.

In the fall of 1913, the first Lipscomb family reunion was held at the homeplace, with Nathan and Laura Lipscomb and all of their living children in attendance, as well as the spouses of those who were married and their young children, and several close friends and neighbors. Of those attending, only three of those present survive at this time: Corinne Lipscomb (Worley), Ozella Lipscomb (Gaines), and Emma Burnette (Biggers), all granddaughters of Nathan and Laura. The Lipscomb Family Reunion became an annual event with attendance oftentimes exceeding 150 and including relatives from a number of states. In 1976, while the nation was celebrating its bicentennial, attendees at the Lipscomb Reunion decided to prepare a time capsule to be opened by their descendants during the tricentennial - 2076. The capsule, containing family information, contemporary publications, currency, modern household devices, and the like, was buried in the crawlspace under Wofford's Cross Roads Baptist Church, White, Georgia.

On Saturday, July 10, 1999, the Lipscomb family will gather at Plant Bowen Recreation Center, a few miles west of Cartersville, Georgia in the Stilesboro community for our 86th Lipscomb Family Reunion.

There have been and probably still are Lipscombs in Bartow County who are not descendants of Nathan and Laura or even of Elias and his second wife, Sara Catherine. Some lived in the Stamps Creek Community. It is believed these Lipscombs were related to Elias' descendants but may be descendants of one or more other immigrants from the same large Lipscomb clan in South Carolina.

Some Lipscombs who have lived in Bartow County were descendants of Elias but not of Nathan and Laura. After Nathan's mother, Artemisa, died in 1884, Elias married Sara Catherine Pratt and they had two children: Robert Lee (born September 26, 1885) and Clara (born December 7, 1887). Both married and had children, most of whom are believed to have grown up outside of Bartow County. There was little contact between the two branches of Elias' descendants.

Several descendants of Robert Lee Lipscomb, including Norman and Julie Lipscomb of Carrollton, Georgia; Sue Lipscomb Paige and her children, Dustin, Derek and Emily Paige, from Corinna, Maine; and Francis and Emmaline Maroney of Upton, Massachusetts, attended our 1996 Lipscomb Family Reunion.

Collateral descendants of Laura Crow Lipscomb living in the Cartersville area include Robert and Glennis Crowe and Helen Crowe, widow of Bill Crowe. They too frequently attend our reunions. You will no doubt notice these great-neices and nephews spell their last name with an "e".

NOTE: This history of the Nathan Lafayette Lipscomb and Laura Lieuraney Crow Lipscomb family was compiled and written in January, 1995, by our beloved cousin, John R. Lipscomb, of Rome, Georgia, our family historian for many, many years. It was slightly revised and updated by Allene Ramey Carbonie in June, 1999.

We are deeply indebted and grateful to Johnny for the countless hours, many telephone calls and miles traveled to obtain the early lineage of our family, bringing us through five generations of our forefathers before Granddaddy Nathan Lafayette Lipscomb and through two additional generations since his marriage to our grandmother, Laura Lieuraney Crow Lipscomb.

It has been our privilege and pleasure to compile this Lipscomb Family Directory bringing us through yet another four generations and including a wealth of other valuable information about our great and wonderful family.

Included in this directory is a genealogy of Nathan and Laura Crow Lipscomb representing seven generations and approximately 650 descendants from 20 states and our nation's capitol of Washington, D. C. Also listed elsewhere in the directory are the names of almost 100 deceased relatives and their places of internment. Other information includes birth-dates and anniversaries of relatives, as well as information on those who have served our country in the military, those in religious, medical and educational vocations and a family mailing list.

Our purpose for compiling this LIPSCOMB FAMILY DIRECTORY was to bring us closer together by helping us to know each other better. From the interest shown and your willingness to cooperate and assist in this endeavor, we believe we have, without a doubt, achieved this goal. Our thanks, love and good wishes always to each of you.

In Loving Memory
of

"...I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die...

St. John 11:25-26

WHEN I MUST LEAVE

When I Must Leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears

And hug your sorrow to you through the years,

But start out bravely with a gallant smile;

And for my sake and in my name

Live on and do all things the same,

Feed not your loneliness on empty days,

But fill each waking hour in useful ways,

Reach out your hand

in comfort and in cheer

And I in turn will comfort

you and hold you near;

And never, never be afraid to die,

For I am waiting for you in the sky!
